

GRADUATES OF SPELMAN SEMINARY, ATLANTA, GA. CLASS OF 1908

When in Need They Send to Spelman

Scores of Spelman graduates are bright examples of Christian wives and mothers. Many are helpful wives of ministers; others are assisting their husbands in their work as teachers; all are exerting an uplifting influence on the lives of the coming generation.

One graduate is the successful editor of a newspaper; some are bookkeepers and stenographers; one is a pharmacist; three have completed the course in medicine and are now physicians, one of them the second Negro woman to receive a state license in Mississippi, where she is a successful practising physician.

When Atlanta people want intelligent helpers in the homes, or nurses for the sick, they telephone to Spelman; when county school commissioners or thoughtful Negro preachers want a teacher who can instruct both in books and in principles of right living, they write to Spelman.
